Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The general nature of the telephone interview was to discuss the present invention and the prior art cited under 35 USC 103(a). Applicant stated that the DAC in Mathews et al. is not the same as the data store; and that Mathews et al. does not provide the same function as the the generic document of the present invention. The examiner agreed that the DAC is different than the data store, and pointed out that Mathews et al. provides for the data store in element (107). The examiner referenced paragraph 0053 for the feature of the data store schema. The concept of the foreign key was discussed with respect to Huttel et al. at paragraph 0012. Applicant will submit formal remarks for consideration .
